Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- Who do you keep in touch with when you travel?
- How do you contact them? Social media? Video-chat? Phone?

Can Do Statements

- I can give extended warnings, recommendations, or advice.
- I can talk about causes, effects and solutions.
- I can talk about what people do and what people are doing.

Let's Explore!

John and Vanessa talk to each other across the world!

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

John: Vanessa?
Vanessa: John! How is the job going?
John: It's amazing. If you want to visit a spectacular place, Brazil is it!
Vanessa: And Carnival!
John: I'm joining the samba parade tonight. I love the energy here.
Vanessa: I am learning how to cook Indian food this week.
John: If you enjoy spicy food, Indian food is a good choice!
Vanessa: I'm going to the market later to get some spices!
John: I went into the rainforest. It's disappearing because they are cutting the trees.
Vanessa: I know!
John: The people there tap trees to get latex. They are losing their jobs because trees are cut. I'm going to bring a Save the Rainforest package home to spread the word.
Vanessa: If you want, we can have a rainforest night. We could collect money.
John: Great idea!

Let's Practice!

Let's give some suggestions.

Learning Points

The Present Continuous Tense vs. the Present Simple Tense

You use the Present Simple tense to talk about:

- things in general
- things that happen regularly
- things that do not change

Form: subject + verb

You use the Present Continuous tense to talk about:

- something that is happening now
- something that is happening around now (today) plans

Form : subject + to be + verb+ing

Present Simple

I like cookies!
He always wins that game!
She enjoys dancing.

Present Continuous

She's eating a cookie.
He isn't winning today.
They are dancing in the parade.

Learning Points

The Zero Conditional

You use the zero conditional to talk about general truths.

There are two parts to the sentence.

One part is the condition. The other part is the result.

From:

If + the Simple Present tense, the Simple Present Tense

If I have time, I go to the cinema.

The condition is have time. The result is go to the cinema.

Condition	Result
If you want to see the rainforest up close,	go with a group.
If you like trees and flowers,	the rainforest is the place to visit!

Examples:

- If this continues, the rainforest may disappear soon.
- If too many trees are cut down, deserts can form.
- If you want to help, have a rainforest night.
