Let's Start!

Ahh! The smell of fresh coffee!

Learning Outcome

Identify health problems and ways of staying healthy, and use them in a limited range of social situations.

Ask your partner:

- Do you drink a lot of coffee? Why or why not?
- What type of coffee do you prefer? Strong? Mild? Spiced? Flavored?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food.
- I can ask and respond to suggestions.
- I can talk about what people do and what people are doing.

Let's Explore!

John and the cafe owner discuss coffee.

* When you "discuss" something, you exchange your opinions about it.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

John: I'm drinking more coffee here in Brazil. It tastes so good!

Cafe Owner: We love our coffee. We think it is good for our health! Do you know that all coffee grows near the equator?

John: Really? I'm enjoying this coffee. Is it Brazilian?

Cafe Owner: Yes. The taste of coffee is unique in every country. Some coffees are mellow and rich, and others are spicy. Some are strong, and others are mild.

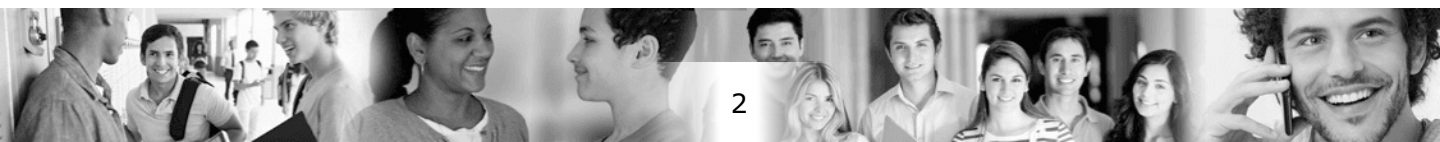

John: This coffee I'm drinking is strong.

Cafe Owner: You should try the espresso. Most espresso is from the dark Brazilian coffee beans.

John: What Brazilian coffee should I buy?

Cafe Owner: I'd recommend the Santos coffee. I'm serving it today! Why don't you take some home? Each cup can bring you back to Brazil!

John: That's a great idea!

Let's Practice!

Mmmm! Smell the coffee!

Instructions: Read the sentences. Fill in the blank with the missing word. Use: unique, dark, strong, mild, mellow.
