Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: The sound, the colors, the culture - Welcome to Carnival!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- How often do you go to festivals?
- What kind of festivals do you like? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use the ou sound like would.
- I can describe celebrations and festivals.
- I can identify key information in a short audio.

Let's Explore!

Listen to John talk about the Carnival in Rio de Janeiro. Do you want to join him?

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Everyone should join the Carnival festival in Rio de Janeiro. This is the world's largest party!

I'm having a really good time in Brazil. Everyone is so friendly, fun and full of life. Plus, there are people here from around the world. It's a great opportunity to learn about the culture and traditions of Brazilians.

The costumes on the dancers are fantastic. The wood floats are covered with decorations and people from samba schools moving to the rhythm. The beat of the music is so enticing. Revelers fill the streets, dancing and singing. I'm not the best dancer but the music makes me even want to try the samba! I'd love to come back again and bring my friends. Peter, Sally and Vanessa would love this! I should take more pictures to show them later. This is an experience of a lifetime.

Let's Practice!

Let's start saying words and sentences with the ou sound like would.

Instructions: Read the sentences aloud with your partners. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. Everyone should join the Carnival festival in Rio de Janeiro.
2. Peter, Sally and Vanessa would love this!
3. I should take more pictures to show them later.
4. The wood floats are covered with decorations and people from samba schools moving to the rhythm.
